Dear Sir,

Sub: Subscription Charges Due for the Period Oct19 - Sep20

This is to bring to your kind notice that after checking our records, we have found that your Institution has not paid the subscription charges due for our Journal, INDIAN JOURNAL OF FINANCE, for the above mentioned period. It behooves us to explain to the office that it is for the sole purpose of avoiding inconvenience to the students and the academic fraternity that we continue sending the journals to an institute/university even after the expiry of the subscription period. Normally, the process of bill clearance takes time, and to avoid unnecessary delay, even if we do not get a renewal request from an institution/university, we do not stop sending the journals.

In your case, the subscription expired on September 30, 2019. Thereafter, in keeping with our policy to keep academic interests foremost, we have sent the issues from Oct19 – Jan20 (4 issues). We had also sent repeated reminders for renewal of subscription, but we did not get any response from your end.

As this journal is a platform for researchers, professors and lecturers, it would be a respectable gesture on your part to inform us whether you would like to continue subscribing to the journal and also settle the dues within one month, else we shall delete your institution's name from our mailing list. You will appreciate that we can render you better services if payments are received promptly. We hope you will kindly cooperate in remitting the payment.

Thanking you,

Yours truly,

Meenakshi Gilani
